

Why does the fuel surcharge change every month?

The fuel surcharge fluctuates from month to month because it is dependent on the price of crude oil on the international market. The price of fuel changes practically every day, thus directly affecting the fuel surcharge amount applied to your bill each month. You can find the monthly adjustment of the fuel surcharge on the Rates & Service Standards page on this website.

Source URL: <https://lucelec.com/content/why-does-fuel-surcharge-change-every-month>